Arabs Disperse Army and Capture Provisions and Ammunition.

(By Associated Press.)

ADEN ARABIAN, April 25.—The situation in Turkish Arabia has become critical. It transpires that only a thousand of the Turkish troops sent to the relief of Riza Fasha reached Sanaa and these nied thitter after sustaining a defeat at the hands of the insurgents. Riza Pasha's troops, 8,699 strong, encountered the Arabs in great force five miles south of Sanaa, March 20th and after a sharp encounter most of the troops consisting of Syrian reserves laid down their arms or deserted, the remanant of the Turks manging to reach Sanaa, the same evening with only fifty camel loads of supplies, The chief of staff, Izzat Pasha was killed and several guns were abandoned and taken possession of by the Arabs, who also captured 200 camels laden with provisions and large quantities of rifles and visions and large quantities of rifles and ammunition. The investment of Sanaa by the insurgents is being tightened.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SPISHOGER, N. C., April 23.—Captain B.
W. Thaxton aged forty-five years, of tale place, committed suicide late this aftermoon by shooting himself through the heart with a shotgum. The scene of the tragedy was in his own room, and at a time when all members of the family were out in the yard. The report of the gun was heard and loved ones rushed into the room, but life was already extinct, as the entire load of shot had passed through the heart, tearing a large opening through

The remains were viewed by large crowds of people who visited the Thaxton home to-night before the body was prepared for burial.

No cause has been assigned for the rash act, though it is known that Captain Thaxton, who was a conductor on the Southern Ballway, between this place and Selma, has been in bad health for several months, with little hope of a cure.

He had been on the streets during the afternoon and his death caused a great

Inspiring Service at the Funeral

Inspiring Service at the Funeral of Bishop Watson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 25.—By agreement among the clergy the funeral of Bishop A. A. Watson this afternoon was touchingly referred to as a triumphal service in honor of the triumph of the decedeed bishop awer death and in Christian warfare.

The services were conducted by Bishops Cheshire, of Raleigh; Gapers, of Columbia, and Strange, of Wilmington. Six of the clergy of the score who came to attend the funeral acted as pall-bearers. The body lay in state in St, James Episcopal Church to day, and was viewed by hundreds of people from this city and outside points. The simple, beautiful service of the Episcopal Church was followed at the funeral. The choir entered the church, followed by the tlergy; then the bishops, pall-bearers, members of the family and the standing committee, forming a solemn pageant.

All Easter decorations remained unaltered in the church, which was filled to overtiowing. The body was laid to rest in Oakdale, beside the grave of his second wife.

(By Associated Press.)

PITTSBURG, April 25.—W. D. F. Lappe, aged nincteen years, a member of a prominent and wealthy. East End family, was shot and killed early to-day by Polleeman Rufus Ullom. Two of young Lappe's companions were arrested and detained as witnesses and a third escaped. The four young men were having an argument about 2.39 o'clock this morning on Second Avenue, and were ordered to move on by Officer Baker. After going a short distance they stopped and began wrangling again. Officer Baker started after them, and they ran. Policemant Ullom, who was near by joined in the chase, calling on the boys to halt. The young men paid no attention to the officer's call, and Ullom drew his revolver and fired three times, the second shot striking Lappe. He was hurrled to the hospital, where he died at 5 o'clock. Policeman Ullom was arrested. PITTSBURG, April 25.-W. D. F. Lappe,

NEW JERSEY STOCK EXCHANGE ORGANIZED

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 25.—The certificate of incorporation of the New Jersey Stock Exchange was filed in New Jersey today. The object of the corporation, as stated in the papers, is to maintain an exchange and to furnish facilities for its members in the purchase and sale of securities.

The exchange is capitalized in the sum of $250,000, there being 500 shares at $500 each. It is assumed the new enterprise is undertaken for the purpless of avoiding the additional cost that win be imposed on stock transactions when the new transfer tax law goes into effect on June 1st in this State.

CHANGES APPROVED.

Committee Authorizes Improvements in Viaduct Plans.

Upon application of the Citizens' Rapid Transit Company, the Street Committee held a called meeting yesterday after-noon, and approved certain changes in the plans and specifications of the pro-posed viaduct to be built by the composed viaduct to be built by the company.

The alterations authorized are considered in the line of improvements over the plans as originally submitted.

For example, it is now proposed to make the viaduct forty-two feet wide, instead of thirty-nine feet, as was hitherto intended, and it is to cost several thousand dollars more than the first price fixed.

While the officers of the company are not discussing their plans for publication at this time, it is believed the work on the proposed new line embracing the viaduct, will shortly be commenced.
